1. You are the Way, the gate of salvation,
 you are doorway of wisdom and peace.
2. You are the Song that fills all creation,
 You are the music that sounds deep within.
3. You are the Word that rouses and frees us,
 You are the fire that sets us ablaze.
4. You are the Love that binds us together,
 you are the freedom that shatters all chains.
5. You are the wind of God's mighty justice,
 you are the one breath of mercy and peace.

Recalling our Faults Kyrie VIII Berthier

Behold the Wood of the Cross Schutte
Based on the Gospel of St. John, Chapter 12

Be - hold, be - hold, the wood of the cross, on which is hung our sal - va - tion O
 come, let us a - dore.

1. Unless a grain of wheat shall fall upon the ground and die,
 it shall remain but a single grain and not give life.
2. And when my hour of glory comes as all was meant to be,
 you shall see me lifted up, upon a tree.
3. For there can be no greater love shown upon this land, than in the one that came to die that we might live.

Meditation Passage

Time for Silence

Procession of Light ✠ Adoration of the Cross

Please feel welcome to bring your candle forward, and spend some time kneeling in front of the cross during these next two songs.

Cor
Loquitur

The episcopal motto of Blessed John Henry Newman was "Cor ad Cor Loquitur" – "heart speaks to heart." As stewards of Newman's University Church, we seek to create a community where faith and reason are engaged, where prayer and discourse, sacred song and intellectual inquiry join together. You are very welcome to be with us today.

1. It is God who forgives all your guilt, who heals every one of your ills, who redeems your life from the grave, who crowns you with love and compassion.
2. The Lord is compassion and love, slow to anger and rich in mercy. He does not treat us according to our sins, nor repay us according to our faults.
3. As a Father has compassion on his children, the Lord has pity on those who fear him; for he knows of what we are made, he remembers that we are dust.
